A clean and rectilinear silhouette offers a modern variation of traditional lounge seating for reception, waiting and meeting areas, the executive office or the home. Fully upholstered with comfortable loose back and seat cushions, the Freesia collection features a distinctive wood leg reminiscent of the cosmopolitan style of mid-century furnishings. The simple geometry of the chair is both classic and contemporary, and suitable for application in a variety of settings. Freesia is available as a lounge chair, two- or three-seater sofa.
