features

The Pai family of sofas features a compact concept with considered foot print. As the culture of work continues to change, an ongoing evolution in workspace planning and need for new types of furniture programs will address new demands created by group and community work areas. Pai creates a new level of planning in small spaces.

- PAI can be combined to create unique configurations or used as individual pieces

dimensions

Pai is composed of one, two and three part sections with options for arms and tablets. The following outlines each of these dimensions.

specifying pai finishes

The modularity of PAI permits a wide range of fabric combinations that allows for an expressive use of color, texture and material. The base, seat and back can all be finished in a different finish if desired.

Note When arm option selected, upholstery finish defaults to seat upholstery selection
When two tablets selected, tablet is the same on both sides

- ① Seat
Select the seat fabric
- ② Back
Select the back fabric (it can be the same fabric as the seat or contrasting fabric)
- ③ Base
Select the base fabric (it can be the same fabric as the seat and back or contrasting fabric)
- ④ Tablet Surface
Select the tablet surface type
